Congregational Announcements

Church education for children and young people (preschool through high school) continues today after morning worship. Parents, please have your children and young people regularly attend, in keeping with the promises that you and the congregation made to each other at baptism.

Tonight, after evening worship, refreshments will be provided in the church basement by Mylasah and Kay.

We would like to thank all those who gave prayer, cards, and acts of kindness in the passing of our mother and grandmother. God is love. Arlo and La Vonne Bonnema and Family.

Women's Bible Study is meeting on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. for five weeks, September 18 – October 16, in the church basement, studying The Faithful: Heroes of the Old Testament. For more information or questions, contact Pam Dekkers at (712) 540-1201. lifeway.com/en/product-family/the-faithful

Women of all ages are invited to a time of fellowship on the first and third Tuesday of each month (October 1 & 15) at 10 a.m. at Casey's Bakery to connect with and encourage each other. You may come and go as you please.

Council (elders and deacons) will next meet Monday, October 14 at 6:30 p.m. for our yearly church visit. We will be visited by Rev. Joel Kok and an elder from Covenant CRC in Sioux Center. Their task is to ascertain whether the officebearers of our church faithfully perform our duties, adhere to sound doctrine, observe the provisions of Church Order, and promote the building up of the body of Christ and the extension of God's kingdom. Members of the congregation who have a concern about congregational life and/or the present leadership of the congregation may meet with the church visitors, but must inform the council of their intention, and identify the substance of their concerns before meeting with them. The deacons encourage you to consider financial gifts for the Steve and Tara Dekkers family, above and beyond support to the Dekkers Mission within our church budget. They have incurred many extra expenses related to mold within their home and Tara's health issues related to the mold. Please place checks in the offering bags through the month of October with Dekkers Family in the memo line.

Additional Announcements

The council has decided, due to declining and inconsistent attendance at evening worship, to temporarily move in a different direction on Sunday evenings. Beginning in October, we will have evening worship the first Sunday of the month, a large group study or activity the second Sunday of the month, Grow Groups (small groups) either in homes or at church the third Sunday of the month, and no formal evening activities the fourth and fifth Sundays of the month. We will try this on a trial basis through November and allow the congregation to give feedback for determining future direction at a congregational meeting in the latter part of November.

Sunday, October 13, our church discipleship monthly special speaker series will follow morning worship. Scott Vreeman of Ireton will give a thirty-minute presentation on family which will be followed by a potluck meal in the church basement. Everyone is encouraged to stay for the presentation and meal together. Please bring a hot dish and a salad or dessert to share; tableware and drink will be provided.

Northwestern College invites you to The Art of Christian Leadership conference on Tuesday, October 1 from noon to 5 p.m. on the college's campus. This conference will explore what it takes for leaders to have faithful influence in a secular age and is for leaders in any arena, including business, community organizations, education, ministry and politics. The conference begins at noon with lunch and a keynote presentation by Dr. Andy Root—a leading thinker on Christian influence in our secular age—followed by three workshop sessions during which attendees can choose from a variety of leadership workshops led by local leaders. The conference is $45 to attend and includes lunch. For more information and to register, go to nwciova.edu/events/Christian-leadership-conference.

Dordt University's First Mondays Speaker Series presents Dr. Karen Swallow Prior, author and award-winning Professor of English at Liberty University, on Monday, October 7. She will present at 11 a.m. in the B.J. Haan Auditorium on "A Noiseless Patient Spider: Reading in the Age of Twitter, Instagram, and Snapchat" and at 7:30 p.m. in the Science Building Room 1606 for a short lecture and Q & A titled "A Bee in St. James' Library: Lessons from Jonathan Swift on How to Read Widely, Write Well, and Rule Twitter." Both events are free and open to the public. Find more information at theandreascenter.org or contact Emily Rowe at emily.rowe@dordt.edu or (712) 722-6434.

James Prichard, a Christian attorney from Barnabas Foundation, is going to be in our area Tuesday–Wednesday, October 8–9. He will meet with families for a confidential will planning consultation at no cost and with no obligation. For more information or to schedule a complimentary conversation with Jim please call Ann Zacek at Barnabas Foundation at (888) 448-3040 (ext. 121). To help you get started, you may also request a free special resource titled "7 Reasons to Review Your Will" by simply sending an e-mail request with "7 Reasons Request" in the subject line to info@BarnabasFoundation.com.

From Faith Formation Ministries

Family Faith Formation Tip: Thankfulness is an important faith practice. Each day between now and Thanksgiving, notice the things in your life that you can give thanks for. Write those things on slips of paper and collect them in a jar or box to read during your Thanksgiving celebration. Also visit tinyurl.com/ThanksPsalms for some beautiful Psalm printouts you can use to decorate your Thanksgiving table.
